Although it's not in the Reservoir Riders trail system, please be advised that the trails in Duluth South of Blackwoods to the Munger Trail will be closed this winter due to extensive damage following the June floods. It is yet to be determined if the Munger Trail from Duluth to Carlton will be open. Stay in touch with your local snowmobile clubs to get current trail conditions.

Look for our new and improved snowmobiling trails map at local businesses. The new maps were created by Reservoir Riders club in partnership with the Two Harbors snowmobile club with the goal of having one map to cover the entire arrowhead region of NE MN. The new map now covers snowmobile trails to the Canadian border in the north and into the Iron Range in the West.
